It is intended that Chemical Society Reviews will have the broad appeal necessary for researchers to benefit from an awareness of advances in areas outside their own specialities. Deliberate efforts will be made to solicit authors and articles from Europe which present a truly international outlook on the major advances in a wide range of chemical areas. It is hoped that it will be particularly stimulating and instructive for students planning a career in research. The articles will be succinct and authoritative overviews of timely topics in modern chemistry.

In line with the above, review articles will not be overly comprehensive, detailed, or heavily referenced (ca. 30 references), but should act as a springboard to further reading. In general, authors, who will be recognized experts in their fields, will be asked to place any of their own work in the wider context. Review articles must be short, around 8–10 journal pages in extent. In consequence, manuscripts should not exceed 20–30 A4/American quarto sheets, this length to include text (in double line spacing), tables, references, and artwork. An Information to Authors leaflet is available from the Senior Editor (Reviews).

Although the majority of articles are intended to be specially commissioned, the Society always considers offers of articles for publication. In such cases a short synopsis (including a selection of the literature references that will be cited in the review and a brief academic CV of the author), rather than the completed article, should be submitted to the Senior Editor (Reviews), Books and Reviews Department, The Royal Society of Chemistry, Thomas Graham House, Science Park, Milton Road, Cambridge CB4 4WF.
